

PARTY SUGGESTIONS

SERVE MISERABLE SNACKS

GUMMY SNAKES

(a.k.a. "The Incredibly Deadly Viper")

LEMONY-ADE

LEMONY SQUARES

SWEDISH FISH

From Café Salmonella

CHEWING GUM

The Baudelaires and other workers at the Miserable Mill were fed this for lunch!

YOU'RE A POET AND MAY NOT KNOW IT!

Isadora and Duncan Quagmire are two of the Baudelaires' closest friends. Isadora is a poet. In The Vile Village, she uses a two-line form of poetry known as a couplet to give clues to the Baudelaires about where Count Olaf has hidden them.

Have your friends write their own rhyming couplet that is a clue to a secret hiding place. Have them read their poems out loud so that the group can guess the hiding place they are describing.

Here is an example to get you started...

Clothes on their hangers, shoes are on the floor
It's a very small room, where you can shut the door

